15th Week in Ordinary Time - Year A - 16 July 2017

Readings: Isaiah 55:10-11; Rom 8:18-23; Mt 13:1-23

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

The care of the sick and vulnerable in our community is a sacred duty given us by Jesus.

It is a duty in which we combine the very best of medical science with the wellspring of compassion.

Those who care for the sick and the dying reveal the face of God as healer and Good Shepherd.

We are blessed in their ethical care and compassion for they remind us that it is only in community that our own sense of dignity, self-worth, and trust is nurtured, empowered and sustained.

Let us never lose sight of the difference we can make on the Kāpiti Coast to the care of the chronically and terminally ill.

May we never tire of supporting the caregivers of the sick and vulnerable in our families and community.

With every blessing in Christ,
Fr Michael McCabe, Parish Priest.

A very big 'thank you' to all who support our produce stalls. To date $14,721 has been raised for the building of our new church and since May both stalls have been averaging $230 per week....a wonderful effort!

BUT we still need 'bakers'. We have only a few volunteers to run the stalls and bake the cakes so if anyone can join our happy few and assist with baking or the supply of produce we would love to hear from you.

Just bring items down to either St Pat's Hall for 8.30am Mass or Our Lady of Fatima for 10am Mass.

Thanks in anticipation.
