

16th Week in Ordinary Time - Year A - 23 July 2017

Readings: Wis 12:13, 16-19; Rom 8:26-27; Mt 13:24-43

Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

Like a good teacher Jesus continues to tell stories – parables – designed to make us think.
Stories that are designed to lead us into the sacred, the realm of grace and possibility...
Stories that are designed to help us work together for the greater good...
Stories to help us all grow in a spirit of charity and tolerance...

This weekend John O’Sullivan, Chair of the Development and Steering Group, will give an update to parishioners on progress towards our new parish church. A lot of work goes on behind the scenes - we are blessed to have dedicated parishioners prepared to lead and use their gifts and talents for the greater good of the parish.

These leaders are ably supported by our parish staff and ministry teams – we remain deeply grateful to them for the difference they are making for us and for those who will follow us in faith.

With every blessing in Christ, Fr Michael McCabe, Parish Priest.
