Christmas Gifts for the Sick & Housebound

Please remember those in our parish who are sick or housebound by leaving small unwrapped gifts in the Christmas box at Our Lady of Fatima and St Patrick's Hall by 10 December. The 'Old Ducks' and Women's Guild have offered to wrap the gifts for distribution by those Eucharist Ministers who visit the housebound.

A big 'Thankyou' in anticipation.

Some ideas: Chocolates, small tins of biscuits/sweets, notebook & pen, greeting cards with envelopes, calendars, toiletry items.

Thanks and many blessings

Congratulations to their families and teachers.

CONGRATULATIONS

Congratulations to Breellen Gedye who was the recipient of the prestigious Catholic Scholarship Award presented at last Sunday’s Youth Mass. Only 6 scholarships are given out in our diocese and we were lucky to have Breellen Gedye, who was nominated from our Parish, and also Joseph Mettrick, who was the recipient from St Patrick’s College, receive scholarships out of 26 very worthy applicants.

Congratulations to them both and to their families

We wish all our young people who are moving on from college to work and further education, a bright and amazing future. God bless you all!
