Haere mai e te whanau, Tena koutou katoa, a kia noho te Ariki ki a koutou.

Welcome, family, greetings to you all. May the Lord be with you.

Dear Parishioners,

At the time of writing the Steering Group is preparing to meet with our Architects, DLA, in Wellington.

We are looking forward to seeing progress in the design for our new Parish Church, Chapel and Meeting Rooms, together with the Parish offices. While it may seem a while in the making we are very hopeful that the dialogue around previously considered designs has contributed greatly to this simpler, more modest and affordable design.

An update will be given to the Parish at next weekend's Masses along with an invitation to attend Parish meetings to discuss the design in a more reflective manner. These meetings will be held on Monday, 14 May 2018 at Saint Patrick's Hall, 2.30pm-4pm and 7-8.30pm, and on Tuesday, 15 May 2018 at Our Lady of Fatima Church foyer 2.30pm-4pm.

Please continue to keep our new Church in your prayers and sincere thanks for your generous efforts of prayer and sacrifice in getting us to this exciting stage of the development of Our Lady of Kāpiti Parish.

With every blessing in Christ, Michael McCabe, Parish Priest
